Mentor's Message

Dear Readers,

Responsibility is the foundation of personal and professional growth, involving accountability for one's actions, decisions, and consequences. It encompasses personal, social, professional, financial, and environmental integrity, and self-discipline. By taking ownership and prioritizing tasks, individuals can develop responsibility, leading to better decision-making, improved relationships, increased productivity, and personal fulfillment. So the children should understand that responsibility empowers individuals to shape your own destiny and make a positive impact on the world around you.

IMPORTANT DAYS TO REMEMBER...

WORLD TOURISM DAY (SEP - 27)

World tourism day is celebrated on 27th September every year. It is started by United Nations World Tourism Organization. Tourism is one of the most important sectors of the economy. Tourism generates a lot of employment and provides livelihood to millions of people. Tourism places involve historical monuments, mountains, rivers, temple, desert and many other places.

World Tourism Day is a celebration that fosters friendly ties with neighboring countries and beyond, boosting investments for positive social impacts like improved infrastructure and facilities. India holds the 39th spot in the World Economic Forum's Travel and Tourism Development Index 2024, leading in South Asia. The theme for 2024 focuses on tourism and peace, with the UN tourism uniting 160 member nations. UN tourism's current Secretary General is Zurab Pololikashvili, headquartered in Madrid, Spain. Remember, true fulfillment comes from experiences, not possessions.

Mrs. J. Jayanthi , M.Sc., B.Ed.,
Department of Science

Ms. T. Karthika, M.Sc.,
Department of Maths

WORLD ELDERS DAY (OCT - 01)

The International Day of Elders was observed for the first time on October 1st, 1991. The day aims to raise awareness of the challenges and issues faced by older people worldwide. Most people fail to understand the importance of elderly people in society. They are the ones who preserve the traditional and cultural values present in any ethnic group or community. They are the greatest treasure of the family, society, and nation. Moreover, elders are like the roots of the tree. They hold the family firmly at all times and make them strong. They are the ideal mentor. From all the experience, they can judge a situation and give constructive advice to their children. They also play an important role in solving disputes among the family members. Elderly people have always been the treasure of our families.

Mrs. J. Vanaja, M.A.,
Department of English

WILDLIFE WEEK (OCT 02 - 08)

The national wildlife week is celebrated from the 2nd to the 8th of October every year in India. This week aims at protecting and preserving India's flora and fauna. Wildlife week was conceptualized in 1952 with a long term goal to safeguard the lives of the endangered and threatened species of animals. The Indian government has established an Indian board of wildlife, which strives to spread awareness in order to preserve the wildlife. The week comprises workshops to make people of every age comprehend the complexities of wildlife. India is a biological hotspot, which means, It is home to a large variety of animal and plant species. India's flora and fauna are highly diversified and constitute more than 7 percent of the world's biodiversity. It also incredibly accounts for 7.4 percent of the world's fauna. This highly biologically diversified country requires proper education and awareness to preserve this rich cover. Hence, wildlife week was conceptualized. This week is commemorated to increase the awareness among the common mass regarding the role of wildlife in maintaining nature's equilibrium

Mr. V. Palaniraj, M.Sc., M.Phil., B.Ed.,

NATIONAL POSTAL DAY (OCT - 10)

National Postal Day is a commemoration of the essential role postal services play in connecting people and facilitating communication. Established to honor the postal workers who diligently ensure mail reaches its destination, this day holds significance in recognizing the enduring importance of traditional mail services in our increasingly digital world. The Evolution of Postal Services: From ancient courier systems to the sophisticated postal networks of today, the history of postal services reflects humanity's relentless pursuit of efficient communication.

Postal Workers: Postal workers are the unsung heroes of communication, tirelessly navigating diverse terrains and weather conditions to deliver mail to every corner of the globe. Their dedication and commitment often go unnoticed, yet they form the backbone of a system that keeps communities connected and businesses thriving.

Challenges and Innovations: In an era dominated by digital communication, postal services face numerous challenges, including declining mail volumes and increased competition from electronic alternatives. However, these challenges have spurred innovation within the postal industry, leading to the adoption of advanced technologies and streamlined processes to enhance efficiency and meet evolving customer needs.
