Mentor's Message

Empowering Young Minds,

As you navigate the halls of learning, remember the following values for the support:

Friendliness: Smile and connect with others. Kindness breaks barriers.

Tolerance: Embrace diversity, listen with empathy and celebrate differences.

Gratitude:

Appreciate the little things, count your blessings and share joy.

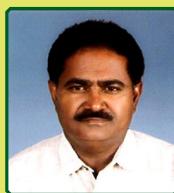

"Hold the door for your friend and offer a heartfelt compliment to brighten someone's day and listen attentively without judgment or interruption"

By embracing friendliness, tolerance, and gratitude, you'll create a positive ripple effect. Believe in yourself, respect others, and shine with kindness.

WORLD KINDNESS DAY

Kindness Day is a global observance dedicated to highlight the significance of kindness towards one another, ourselves, and the world at large. Celebrated annually on November 13th, this day aims to foster an understanding that compassion for others unites us all. This awareness has the potential to bridge divides between nations.

On World Kindness Day, take a moment to share a smile, offer a compliment, give a high five to a friend, perform a good deed, or make a new acquaintance. Let us strive to always remember the importance of kindness.

"Kindness is the language which the deaf can hear and the blind can see."

IMPORTANT DAYS TO REMEMBER... WORLD KINDNESS DAY (NOV 13)

World Kindness Day was established by the World Kindness Movement in 1998 to celebrate good deeds and promote kindness. This day, observed on November 13, aims to unite people across race, religion, politics, gender, and location through acts of kindness. The World Kindness Movement's mission is to inspire individuals and create a kinder world by connecting nations. Save the Children is a kindness movement that emphasizes early childhood development as a crucial investment for lifelong success. Their programs focus on ensuring young children are physically and emotionally healthy, intellectually curious, and ready for school. Research shows that kindness leads to increased well-being, self-esteem, empathy, compassion, and improved mood.

CHILDRENS DAY (NOV 14)

Children's Day is celebrated in India on November 14 to honor Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the country's first Prime Minister. Nehru, affectionately known as "Chacha Nehru" by kids, believed in providing children with quality education. He stated that children are the future of the nation and emphasized the importance of their well-being. Nehru's legacy inspires the focus on children's education, health, and protection, as they are the leaders of tomorrow. It is crucial to create a supportive environment that helps children achieve their dreams and contributes to a better world overall. Happy Children's Day to all!

CHILD RIGHTS DAY (NOV 20)

International Child Rights Day is observed globally on November 20th each year. Child rights includes Rights to survival, identity, healthy food, development, education, protection and participation. Every child should get their basic needs in their daily life. Child labor is a violation of these rights, and children must be safeguarded from all forms of violence. Every child has the right to receive an education through quality schooling. So, it is imperative for society to advocate for children's rights and support them in achieving a promising future
